

GREATER EVIL IS BEYOND THE IMAGINATION OF MAN

than that God,
perfect in every way,
all-powerful,
needing nothing,
knowing everything
past, future and even possible;

a loving, just, merciful and forgiving Father;

would summarily create,
from innocent nothingness, creatures capable of suffering,
knowing in advance,
which of those he will consign to suffer eternally — as promised by Jesus!

No act of his creature-victims could justify this verdict of unsurpassable hate, injustice and endless mercilessness.

All in all, the very definition of unforgiving.

Nothing* more is needed, though volumes provide it,
to prove that such a God is not and never was,
except as the sick
creation of man.
